Bathes.

Kaiserbad, at the Donaucanal, near the Augartenbrücke; price of warm bathes 35—80 kr.

Römisches Bad (roman bath), II. Kleine Stadtgutgasse. This establishment costed more than a million and a half; it is built up in the roman style and is one of the most magnificent establishments of this kind. The warm bath for men is a space, which is covered with a couple in the Byzantine style; it rests upon marble columns, with a basin of marble of Carrara. From here, one comes to the bathes of warm air, which are taken in halls, pompously decorated in the roman style. Contiguous to them one finds vapour-bath-halls, basins with cold water, halls with douches etc. etc. The part, which is destined for ladies, is organized in the manner, we have described just now. There are also separated baths, reposing-halls and dressing-rooms; a coffeehouse and a restoration etc. Price: 60 kr., at the most.

Dianabad, II. Obere Donaustrasse 81; one of the most important bathes of Vienna. Filtered Danube-water, vapour-bathes, douches etc. — In the ground-floor one finds a basin with cold bathes, and a swimming-school (16—17 degrees of temperature) The hall with this basin is perfectly decorated in the modern style, by Burghardt; in winter it is transformed in a dancing-saloon and place of amusement. In the morning from 9—12, only for ladies. Price 40 kr., at the most.

Concordiabad, II., at the Donaucanal, opposite to the Metropole hotel.

Zur scharfen Ecke, II. Obere Donaustrasse 77; warm bathes.

Sophienbad, III. Marxergasse 13; the most ancient bathing-establishment of Vienna. Filtered Danube-water, bathing-tubs of porcelain. In the first floor one finds a basin with cold bathes and a swimming-school, containing 11.321 hectolitres of filtered Danube-water, 16—17 degrees of temperature; the water is constantly running of and to. The hall, where this basin is to be found, was constructed and decorated by Van der Nüll and Siccardsburg, in the year 1845; in winter it is transformed in a dancing-saloon, and place of amusement. Price: a cold bath 35 kr.; a warm bath 50 kr. In the morning from 9—12, only for ladies. Vapour-baths, douches, etc. etc. Omnibus on St. Stefan's place, every half hour (10 kr.).
