

The History of the United States

The United States of America was founded on the 4th of July 1776. It is a country of many states and a large population. The capital is Washington D.C. The President is the highest officer of the government. The Congress is the legislative body. The Supreme Court is the highest court. The United States is a democracy. The people elect their representatives. The United States is a free country. The people have many rights. The United States is a powerful country. It has a large navy and army. The United States is a friendly country. It has many friends in the world.

