

8 27 April 849

6

Angew.

An ornate, rectangular decorative border in a dark ink or engraving style. The border is composed of intricate, repeating floral and scrollwork patterns. At each of the four corners, there is a larger, more complex decorative element that serves as a corner piece, featuring a central circular motif surrounded by elaborate flourishes. The border frames a central area of the page.

W I E N,

bey A. Diabelli & Comp., Graben Nr. 1133.

1842.