

ObenGes

Aug. 18. <sup>am</sup> Cam to Castiglioni's, now living N of St. Louis. Met my son lunch today, for my youth here began so late under such circumplic.

This is a big town, but small with no atmosphere of men going home, except ~~graduates~~ to help their lunch finding work. There is little to do now, but it may still be true for Castiglioni.
Graduation for him, is for us here, ~~graduates~~ ~~because~~ what he has done is about.

What men are here is a mystery, but now nothing but ~~graduates~~ <sup>and</sup> ~~men~~ <sup>young</sup> boys left is, seems to be. I think we are about four hundred in this city & it is hard to find employment.

There is a large number of ~~men~~ <sup>boys</sup> here who are here looking up boys here to help. They are aiding the lunch program with their money in the schools. ~~but~~ <sup>and</sup> ~~not~~ <sup>but</sup> ~~not~~ <sup>but</sup> ~~not~~ <sup>but</sup> ~~not~~ <sup>but</sup> not now are they going.

~~Castiglioni~~ <sup>has</sup> the largest number now left.

my dear Joannia

- we ~~are~~ <sup>are</sup> ~~to~~ <sup>to</sup> ~~see~~ <sup>see</sup> a boy who is a graduate with us - & is not from Castiglioni but from the first. <sup>but</sup> <sup>but</sup> <sup>but</sup> boy came with us & we are interested in the schools. <sup>but</sup> <sup>but</sup> <sup>but</sup> <sup>but</sup> <sup>but</sup> <sup>but</sup> not now.
