

25

Pierma
Monday Morning

Sir,

Though my travel in this hospitable country has been considerably more than I at first anticipated owing to the kindness with which I have been received by all edges and which affords me the greatest pleasure to acknowledge still I am not unmindful of the kindness I received at your hands, on first visiting Pierma a comparative stranger

In passing through your beautiful City and time not enabling me to pay my personal respects. I take this mode of doing it, hoping you will accept the same with the assurance of my lasting feelings of gratitude
I have the honour to subscribe myself

Your Obedient & Grateful Servant
Isa Aldridge

4
th

I am passing through beautiful city and
enabling me to pay my personal respects
this mode
you will accept the
the absence of any
feelings of gratitude
I have the honor to remain yours truly
John P. [unclear]

