

Dear Friend!

I have indeed longly promised and now time passes, it was longer business than the last time, as the new season is closed, and now I am disappointed in you. And think well if I might be glad to see you in the hands of will be in the hands of you in the business, so will be in the hands of business. And I will be in the hands of business.

Kindly yours. J. F. L.
