

TRAUNKIRCHEN AM TRAUNSEE, 27 Aug. 1873

My dearest Adammother!

I must send you with my arow good byes many compliments from the family of-who gave me shelter in her villa for a good evening and I write these lines on the border of the sea, like in the front of the paper, a brillant and fascinating prospect.

I took a bath

a very pleasant thing when one arrives after 8 hours <sup>sojourn</sup> in hot and powdery waggons.

Regretting to be without you in these paradises I hope you slept better than I this night in the hotel where some animals molested my tranquillity.

I think to return today to Kienleach for surprising freedom and give you the morning kiss for yours and Ada's adieu, God bless you

Luigi
