TOTAL-ANSICHT DER CURANSTALT
VOM KRÜCKELBERGER AUS GESEHEN.

Verlag Max Ravizza München.

My dearest friend!

I got your kind letter, which gave me some consolation in my lonely pilgrimage.

Everything is quite pretty here - excepted the ladies - but I doubt whether the bath will be wholesome to me.

Notwithstanding I would like to stay here, if a, visible providence, were present.

As it is now I think to return in a fortnight and to content myself with Västerås perhaps,
as it is more warm and more near to "Sweet home".

I look with me from y^os little Fredy who is very happy to be in a foreign country and good company.

Besides this he is my "sauf" (!)
garde and humorous genius.
by all means.

There is a quantity of acquaintances of all sorts, songs, music, poetry every kind of art is represented.
Yesterday evening we gave an improvised concert,
song (Soli and quatuors), piano (Soli and 4 hands),
lecture of poetry - gratis!
Is that not a paradise?
Only the angels wanting.
What a damage that you are not here. The landscape is bewitching, the air so soft and sweetscenting!

If you will have the kindness to send me your news immediately : Bad. Kreuzen
bei Grein
Curbaut 39

It shall be very glad to have with me the blessing before my departure from here.

I beg to be reminded kindly to good mannan.

Believe me, dearest friend,
to remain thankfully

Yours
Lewis
