

in great hurry!
 after sunset

My dearest Bennhild-Alta!

I forgot that I was bound to Seydel's for to-day and only even now luckily I remember this engagement settled a week ago.

Alas! I dare not see you today, I am punished for my awkwardness and naughtiness.

As for tomorrow

it may happen that I get tickets to the Quatuor for us both

I beg - in such a case - leave, to fetch you and accompany your Basalt nest to the concert as a Cavalier servant.

I had not a free half an hour this afternoon
and am tired to death

Heartily Yours
23/11/60 Lewis

