Dear Sir, Heartly thanks for your lines - I do much better - slept very well - I hope you shall find her pretty - I do my best! Our bath is delightful to-day my 10th - Bathing I see I can do as far as possible - she loves so much to be in the bath - I must withdraw - I shall ways are always remain at my little one - Truly kisses your hands, I am very satisfied with her in every regard.
Breuzer, I find from day to day more charming - my neighbours how amiable - with the Deuel infinitely pleased. My compl. to all friends. I hope you are well. - truly yours &c.
