EVENING SUN, New York, July 24th, 1888

The Vienna Ladies Fencing and Rowing Company closed their Coney Island engagement at the West Brighton Casino, Sunday evening, after a profitable season of six weeks. They play in Jersey City this week. New costumes, new scenery, songs and music have been secured, and the new company as being reorganized will prove a strong attraction.

N. Y. DRAMATIC NEWS, July 25th, 1888

Among the chief attractions that have shared the comforts of a profitable season has been the Vienna Ladies Fencing and Rowing Company, which, under the management of the popular Dr. Sommer, has just closed a six weeks engagement at the West Brighton Casino. The company is now being reorganized, and together with many new specialties, rich costumes and original music will prove a great card to managers.

THE ARGUS, Jersey City, July 26th, 1888

Cooper Hall, A. A. Newman, proprietor. This week Mr. Newman has the Vienna Ladies Fencing Company of ten artists, who, in duos, quartettes and combined, execute some intricate movements with swords. In their armor, they present a novel appearance. Their songs as sung in their own tongue are pretty, and repeated encores attest the popular sentiment with the company.

N. Y. CLIPPER, July 28th, 1888.

Jersey City. The large ballroom in Cooper Hall has been secured by A. A. Newman, Lessee of Cooper Hall Concert Saloon, for the use of the Vienna Ladies Fencing and Rowing Co. The engagement is for the current week. . . . LATER. The Lady Fencers gave one of the most unique entertainments ever witnessed in this city. The attendance was good.

N. Y. DRAMATIC NEWS, Aug. 1st, 1888.

Hoboken. - Cooper's Hall, A. A. Newman, manager. The Vienna Ladies Fencing and Rowing Co. opened July 23d, for a two weeks engagement. The excellence of the show attracted a large number of people. During the current week they will introduce for the first time their new song, entitled "Song of the Foll", written for them by Mr. M. H. Rosenfeld. This will be their first attempt at the English language.

N. Y. CLIPPER, Aug. 4th, 1888.
