Dear Sir,

I have directed
the box keeper to send you two stalls for Thursday evening. I hope you will come round
and see me after the performance, more so-pecially as you have seen Rosenkrantz & Guldenstern in Austria.

I am afraid the performance will be a terap-py one. We have worked hard at the piece but it is difficult to get people to rehearse for matinees, and two or three had to throw up their parts at only a few days ago. I have been expecting to hear from Herrn Klapp, and am disappointed not to have done so. Hoping to see you on Thursday I am
Yours sincerely,
Derrick Miller.
