Dear Sir

I am getting on satisfactorily with my arrangements. I have arranged to produce your comedy at the Olympic Theatre on the evening of February 16th. The cast will be an translate or adapt any other piece of yours that you choose to send me. I have several other german and french pieces but they are none of them of the finished pure comedy class to which "Koumtranz" and "Guldentromm" belongs.

I am glad you approve of "His Romance" as a title: I cannot think of a better one.

I regret exceedingly to hear that you have been unwell: I trust you are now in perfect health again.

I would ask you to oblige me with a photograph of yourself if you could spare me one: in the first place I should like to have one myself, and in the second place I should like to place it in the front of the theatre where your comedy is played: it would excite interest & induce choosing that the play was not pirated. I hope you will be able to oblige me.

With kind regards excellent one: the or two of the small parts are still unfilled but of course there will be no difficulty about that.

All the small parts such as Schleier, v. Düring, Schallberg, Charles, Gertrude &c ~~are~~ will be played by Kuros people to oblige me, so that in that respect the cast will be stronger than it could be if produced in a London Theatre at night.

We commence rehearsal this day week - January 30th.
I shall be delighted to
